Grand Re-Union Honors Sister

BEISEKER — A grand re-union was held last Sunday, July 22 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Verhaest in honor of her niece, Sister Irene Schwartzberger of the Sisters of Charity (Grey Nuns), Blue Quills School, St. Paul, daughter of Mrs. Joseph Schwartzberger of Beiseker. She was accompanied by Sister Irene Lefebvre. The honored guest expects to leave for their Mother House in Montreal next February, where she expects to spend a year and take her perpetual vows.

The re-union, consisting of 87 relatives and two sets of four generations to mark the event, commenced with a picnic lunch served in cafeteria style out on the lawn amongst the gorgeous flowers. Afterwards some enjoyed a ball game, whilst others were just content to have a good chat. Late in the afternoon a huge weiner roast was held, as well as ice cream, cakes and all that goes to make a real treat. At this time Mr. Val Schmaltz, on behalf of the relatives, presented the Sisters with a substantial purse as a small token of affection, to which Sister Irene Schwartzberger responded.

A thoughtful and fitting closing for this grand re-union in these troubled times, was the recitation of the Family Rosary.

The relatives present besides the family of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Verhaest, and the two Sisters, were the honored guest's mother, Mrs. Joseph Schwartzberger of Beiseker, her four sisters, Mrs. Ross, Iririana; Mrs. P. Zerr, Kindersly, Sask.; Delores and Louanna, Beiseker; two brothers, Llewellyn and Gary, Beiseker; two grandmothers, Mrs. Wm. Schwartzberger, Beiseker, and Mrs. Heck, Rudyard, Montana; her aunts and uncles on her father's side, Mrs. Alois Getz and Mrs. S. Selzler, Kelowna; Mrs. Lawrence Getz, Trail; Mrs. E. Feser, Rockyford; Mrs. Val Schleppe, and Mrs. Carl L. Schmaltz, Beiseker; Mr. Ed and Bill Schwartzberger of Beiseker and Tony of Calgary. Aunts on her mother's side, Mrs. Val Schmaltz, Mrs. Alf Hagel and Mrs. Bill Schwartzberger, Beiseker. A large number of the aunts' and uncles' children attended, and almost all the husbands or wives of the aunts and uncles, too. Had everyone been able to attend there would have been Mrs. Joe Verhaest with her seven daughters, and her sister, Mrs. S. Selzler with her seven sons; but, unfortunately, one was missing from both families.

BEVY OF BEAUTIES seen here are among the 180 workers of the Parmenter and Bulloch Mfg. Co. Ltd., Canada's first employee-owned company, at Gananoque, Ont., which celebrated its fifth anniversary as an employee-owned concern by sharing $12,000 (10% of the year's profits) with workers.

Eager Beavers

The staff of the Department of Finance in Ottawa appear to be just a little over eager beaverish. They are eager to get every last penny in taxes, judging from the new table of Income Tax Deductions at Source, but are not so eager to pay interest on overpayments.

Deductions provided by the table which came into effect on July 1st have been increased to 100% of the tax and are, of course, some 25% higher than those in the previous table as was announced by the Minister of Finance last spring.

The catch is that mostly everyone these days makes charitable donations or has medical expenses high enough to reduce taxable income.

As a result most taxpayers will have too much taxes deducted from their pay. Inevitably a tremendous number of tax refund cheques will have to be sent out eventually and in all likelihood many more civil servants will have to be hired to look after the job.

There was not much wrong with the old system whereby 95% of the tax was deducted at the source. This meant that for a great many people at the end of the fiscal year taxes due and taxes paid evened out because of charitable donations, medical expenses and other deductible items.

We feel that many Canadians, realizing that their money overpaid in tax deductions does not bear interest, are resentful of the eager beaver attitude of the Department of Finance. Mr. Abbott might well reconsider his department's policy on payroll tax deductions and revert to the former, more equitable system.

Dawn Age Agricultural

The basic wealth of any country is its agriculture. Nations without an adequate supply of home-grown foods are often impoverished in the face of apparent wealth.

Take the ancient country of Persia, now called Iran, for instance. Though rich in oil resources, the people are poor because they do not have a healthy agricultural industry. Their equipment belongs to the dim, distant past. Their methods of farming are as old-fashioned as Noah's Ark.

It has been definitely established that an agricultural economy existed in Iran 6,000 years ago. Discoveries made near the Caspian Sea in northern Iran, by an archeological expedition from the University of Pennsylvania, included the remains of Neanderthal man and the bones of domesticated animals. Through radioactive tests it was established that these remains existed around 4,000 B.C.

Among the thousands of artifacts found by the expedition were sickle blades used for cutting grain, saws, knives, needles, chisels and other man-made implements chipped from flint cores or carved from antlers and horns; milling stones and mortars made from sandstone; and jewelry fashioned from seashells, jade and polished stone, and primitive baked pottery.

On the sickle blades, all of the fine-edged type, was found a coating derived from silica in the grain stems they cut. The crude pottery unearthed in the Neolithic levels gave further evidence of the growing and culture of grain in that ancient period.

Newcomers Get More Dollars

A recent change in the regulations governing amount of money to emigrants from the United Kingdom to Canada is good news to prospective newcomers to Canada. The British Government have agreed to increase the present one thousand pounds sterling, which may be converted into dollars in the first four years, by 25%. This is in respect to every dependent member of the emigrant's family, provided that the total does not exceed 2,000 pounds. In addition, consideration will be given to applications by emigrants to spend their blocked funds in Britain during their first four years, on personal effects and tools of their trade. Both concessions will apply to emigrants already in Canada as well as to those going out in the future.

The Bible Says:

"For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but as it is in the truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe."

—Thessalonians, 2:13.

Billy Offered to Do It

By T. W. PUE

The 1951 annual Edmonton Exhibition is passed and gone for another year, but it brought back to mind memories of earlier exhibitions—twenty years ago, when I saw the big grandstand show in Brandon, Man.

I used to sell the Brandon Daily Sun as a kid at the fair grounds, and did quite well at it, too. I bought papers at 1c per copy and sold them for 5c per copy, making, as one cattleman told me, "four hundred per cent profit." I sold as many as 100 copies a day and what I didn't spend on hot dogs and soft drinks I took home with me.

T. W. PUE

CRASHING THE GRANDSTAND

Most of the newsboys sold the bigger Winnipeg papers and none of them ever got a pass into the grandstand to sell their papers there. The first year, however, I had a pass which said "Admit Willie Pue, Brandon Sun newsboy, to main grounds and grandstand." I believe Miss Hannah Barlow, of the Sun office, can be credited with making out the pass this way and inattention of the signing official at the fair office can be credited with letting it go through. I could sell more papers at the grandstand then anywhere else but when the other kids complained that their passes didn't admit them to the big stand, that finished that. I never got another pass admitting me to the grandstand.

However, I always managed to get in, with the help of the clown, Billy Laurette. Each evening before the sale of tickets commenced, Boy Scouts from the better parts of town, who patrolled the stands, chased all the barefoot newsboys out. But they didn't chase me out. I went into Billy Laurette's room next to the hot dog stand and while he put on his make-up for the evening performance I engaged him in earnest conversation about all the places he had been. By the time he was ready to start to work, I pulled the bag of papers out from behind his big wooden trunk and began selling the Sun to the early comers who came to get a good seat. All these people were regular readers of the Sun who missed their paper if they didn't have it. So it was no trouble selling fifty to a hundred copies before the show started.

Then, when the band started to play, and the acts began to appear, I usually found a good place to see the show. I saw and heard "Show Boat" at five performances one year.

IF TRAPEZE ACT FAILED

I recall, too, the antics of Billy Laurette, clown par excellence. Billy would have no special part in the show—but he worked into every part some way or other. He earned big belly-laughs by dropping his hat on the floor, then stooping over to pick it up, kicking it out of reach meanwhile. He would welcome young couples coming in with "My, my, my! Imagine, such a beautiful looking woman married to such a homely looking man."

The trapeze artist advertised a triple somersault in mid air. It usually took him two or three tries to make it. Billy Laurette would boast "If he don't do it, I WILL!" and thump his chest like a strong ape for emphasis. Then, in a subdued tone, he would add, "I hope he does it."

This year, the grandstand had no clown. Billy Laurette doesn't travel any more. I was told by grandstand performers who knew him that he slipped and fell at a performance down south and died and was buried at Jackson, Mississippi.

I wonder how many of our readers remember Billy Laurette!

The Horse As Food

(From Hamilton Spectator)

Horsemeat is pronounced to be a wholesome commodity when the animal has been well fed, is healthy, not too old and the slaughtering is done under approved sanitary conditions. The horse is one of the cleanest of creatures and, like the cow, is not a flesh eater. It is therefore, according to Federal food regulations, not illegal to sell horsemeat for human consumption provided the vendors plainly mark it as such and do not attempt to represent it as beef.

Where abuses might easily creep into this situation is in the sale of hamburger and processed meats. With the price of horsemeat on the hoof being many times lower than that of beef cattle, the opportunity for deception and unscrupulous profiteering is obvious. Scarcely any person but an expert can tell the difference between a platter of raw hamburger made of horsemeat and one composed wholly of beef.

The concern of food inspectors and public health authorities is evidence of official uneasiness. It also points to the doubtful wisdom of lowering long-established standards which were imposed originally in the face of much opposition and are the only protection afforded consumers.

Communists who have been convicted for "teaching forcible overthrow of United States government" are now crying that the rights they would destroy are being ignored by the courts who found them guilty.

Voice of the People

"VOX POPULI, VOX DEI"

SCREECH!

Dear Sir—To you lousy punk in the green sedan who cut across the Nisku road in front of me at 7:15 p.m. Sunday; I had to jam on my brakes to avoid hitting you. As a result, my baby sleeping in the back seat was jerked to the floor and if any permanent injuries result to her I guarantee I'll hunt you down and this time I won't jam on my brakes. I'll jam my fist right into your nose. Don't you know enough not to pull onto a highway until you're sure there's nobody coming? Oh, you stupid punk!

GERALD S.

Millet.

ZOOT-SUITERS

Dear Sir—Your recent Zoot-Suiter vs. Serviceman illustration was ridiculous. The zoot-suit mobsters are largely juvenile delinquents who should be treated as such. Edmonton makes little provision for their welfare. When these boys become eighteen they'll likely join the army in order to see the world and wreck what they see.

Our armed services seem to consist of most of the riff-raff who can't hold a job anywhere else. Their conduct bears no resemblance to the well-respected uniforms of 1939-44, if the Wainwright camp is a fair example.

Decent citizens feel much safer at home when the army comes to town. They are a tough bunch and they've wrecked Wainwright and Vermilion to prove it. Let's turn them loose in Korea so we can call our towns our own again.

DISGUSTED.

Vermilion.

FREIGHT RATES

Dear Sir—The federal government has introduced into parliament legislation to implement some of the recommendations of the Royal Commission on Transportation. Among the recommended measures is authority for the board of transport commissioners to equalize freight rates between the different areas of Canada, and provision for the interior of Western Canada to get part of the benefits of low "transcontinental" freight rates between the east and the west coast. It is understood that the legislation will not come up for final approval until this fall.

These recommendations would aid the people of Western Canada where freight rates were found to be out of line with those in other regions of Canada.

It's Adults Who Appreciate Value of Good Education

CALGARY — (BUP) — Ever noticed that the people who say "Education is a wonderful thing," are almost always adults?

Sir Richard Livingstone, a former vice-chancellor of Oxford University, believes that "people really begin to get interested in education when they've seen something of life."

Adult education is the only road to a well-educated democracy, according to the British educator who stopped here during a 10-month lecture tour of the United States and Canada.

ADULT COLLEGES

England had a well-developed system of adult education and the response to it was good, he said. He added that since World War II there had been a unique development with the founding of a number of residential colleges for adults.

Some people could not get away for long periods of study, he said, and the result was many short courses, some designed for long week-ends.

Livingstone appraised the short courses with the comment that "You can't get a real insight into a subject in a short course, but you can get a good introduction to it."

BEARS LIKE GOLF COURSE

JASPER.—The championship golf course at Jasper Park Lodge now has an efficient bear chaser named "Wolf". Bears, it seems, can think of no better place to snatch a summer siesta than on Jasper's velvety greens. To eliminate this portable hazard, William H. Brinkworth, the greenskeeper, employs "Wolf", his three-year-old Collie dog, to worry the bears off the greens.

Golfers apparently do not mind the bear-meat hillocks, providing they're kept on the fairways.

Outdoor Theatre Unique For Alberta

The only outdoor theatre outside of the urban centres of Alberta is in operation at Shorncliffe Lake near Czar, 140 miles southwest of Edmonton.

Presentations there are sponsored by the Czar Board of Trade, and films are usually supplied by the National Film Board.

Films are shown every Wednesday and Saturday evenings.

Expansion Blamed For Phone Troubles

Edmonton's record-shattering growth has been blamed for many things, and now it has been blamed for the difficulties that have beset the Alberta Government Telephones long distance service.

Alfred Higgins, general manager, and W. J. Ragan, traffic superintendent, told a meeting of the Edmonton Chamber of Commerce that new equipment is being installed by the AGT but as yet facilities are not great enough to handle the expanded long distance telephone business from Edmonton.

Businessmen in the capital city have complained that it is sometimes quicker to drive to the place at which they have business, rather than wait for the time it takes to get a long-distance call through.

Education Program in Alberta Schools To Combat Narcotic Menace in Province

Education designed to make Alberta's youth aware of the menace of narcotics and abuse of liquor is being planned by the Department of Education.

According to an announcement by Education Minister Ivan Casey, an assistant supervisor of guidance with the department is being assigned to develop an Alberta school program related to alcohol and narcotic problems.

Miss Hanna Christofferson, former high school teacher at Cardston, Alta., will be responsible for the program.

It is the plan of the government to include a course in the school curriculum to acquaint school children with the dangers of liquor and drugs.

Authorities are becoming concerned with the spread of drug addiction among young people in Eastern Canada and the United States, and fear that such practices might spread here.

It was reported exclusively in The Edmonton Sun last week that an international narcotic syndicate is in operation engaged solely in trafficking drugs among youths.

In the East and the U.S., juvenile narcotic addiction has reached alarming proportions, and blame for the rapid spread of the drug habit among young people has been placed squarely on this gang.

According to a U.S. government investigating committee, the overlord of the international syndicate is Charles (Lucky) Luciano, former American vice king who was recently deported to his native Italy.

An educational program on narcotics would be similar to preventive medicine—it would be designed to halt the narcotic menace before it contaminated Alberta's youth.

The Village of Beiseker is not in the district yet.

If anyone would like to sign a non-ratepayers' contract or would like any further information, see or phone Mr. Matt Schmaltz.

Taxpayers do not need to apply for contract because this already has been covered.

Several persons in the district have already benefited from this Hospital Plan. Let everyone become acquainted with this plan, and not miss out on any benefits that you could receive.

It's the result of an amazingly simple engine design. A special firing chamber—called a Dyna-Cell—creates a cyclonic rotary turbulence of the burning fuel on every power stroke. Burning fuel swirls the full length of the stroke exerting equal pressure throughout piston travel. Fuel burns slower, smoother... delivers a pushing force. It's cushioned power. Dependable power. ## Fifteen Pastors Visit Convention

LEVEL LAND — Most residents of this district have attended the Seventh Day Adventist Convention at Lacombe during the past week — July 13 to 21. Very interesting reports were given by pastors, such as A. V. Olson, who has toured Europe the past few years and E. Hare, who was a missionary in Africa for 25 years. With these there were fifteen visiting pastors and many from local areas.

C. C. Weis, director of foreign relief and home mission in Canada, stated that nearly $3,000,000 in cash plus tons of food and clothing have been shipped to critical areas in 20 countries by the Adventists since the war, with a total relief and rehabilitation list of $7,500,000. He reported that this was in addition to the regular $9,000,000 spent in Seventh Day Adventist foreign mission program every year.

The offering taken up for missions during the meetings amounted to over $8,000 without the evening offerings taken for local expenses.

Home Cooking Sale Huge Success

BEISEKER — The final home-cooking sale sponsored by the Catholic Women's League and held in the Frosted Food Centre, was a splendid success, realizing the fine sum of $63.90. Mrs. Florian Mayer was the lucky winner of the cottage roll that Mr. Fred Lavole donated as a door prize. Mrs. Mayer was one of the unfortunate farmer wives in the recent hail storm, and we are glad to know that she won, and no doubt now she feels that the old saying "Every cloud has a silver lining" is quite true.

Mr. Henry Borgardt has returned to work in Calgary, after two week's holidays.

LETTER TO LOUISA

True Values of Life Shouldn't Be Forgotten

DEAR LOUISA:—My father was a minister but I married a man who is in public life and I find it hard to reconcile his views and mine.

My father taught us to consider the good of all people and not just what rewards we ourselves might gain from the things we do. But my husband says that if he did that we would not have the nice home and luxuries that we are accustomed to. He says that the people who put him in office are people who own property and goods and that if he goes against their wishes and votes for controls of rent and goods, they will fight him and he will lose his job.

I can't help thinking of the poor people, who can't afford to pay more rent and who are living on the plainest of food now. Why are these men so selfish that they think of nothing but the few dollars they can pile up and never of the good of their country and its people?

Please publish this letter.

CONFUSED.

Answer: It is passing strange how selfish the majority of people are and how shortsighted. What does it matter if a man piles up millions and then his country is ruined by graft and unfair taxation?

What does it matter how much money these men have if they ruin the economy of the country and we have a depression?

Nevertheless, we have the spectacle of hundreds of lobbyists in Ottawa bringing pressure on our law-makers to further their own little schemes for their own particular little groups. They seem completely oblivious of the danger this country is facing and, instead of bending every effort to conserve and build our resources so that we may defend ourselves when the fatal day arrives, they think only of the immediate profits they can gouge from the public.

And what of the men who represent the people of this country? Are they refusing to be influenced by these groups and voting according to their consciences and for the general welfare?

Well, hardly! With a mere handful of exceptions, they are playing politics as usual. The majority of them have only one thought in mind when they cast their votes and it is just how many votes will this mean for them the next time they run.

Who is to blame for the state

CERTAINLY ... Sir!

of affairs? The answer is quite simple. We are.

We, the people, are so easily led by people who can finance a good propaganda machine during elections that we fail to study men and issues and find the real issues. Too often the men who have stood their ground and voted for the good of the people are thrown out of office by those very people they tried to help.

It is time for every man and woman to wake up and tackle this privilege of voting intelligently.

LOUISA.

Directors Declare Fair Most Successful on Record

Officials of the Edmonton Exhibition have declared this year's fair the most successful on record, as crowds thronged to the Exhibition Grounds throughout the week in record-breaking numbers.

Despite poor weather during part of the week, record-breaking attendance was chalked up.

Other records were broken, too, in the variety of entertainment being offered.

MAMMOTH PARADE

The Parade of Progress, organized by a committee headed by Ald. Bill Hawrelak, was the first Exhibition parade held in Edmonton since 1939.

Over 200 floats participated in the spectacle, which extended for three miles and took over an hour to pass any given point.

Crowds lined the parade's route for 25 blocks. People packed the sidewalks five deep, and buildings along the parade route were crowded with spectators. It is estimated a crowd of 100,000 people watched the pageant.

Parade was headed by an official car, and was followed by various floats and entries, including one from The Edmonton Sun.

During the parade four Mitchell bombers from the City of Edmonton 418 Reserve Squadron flew low overhead, along with a Vampire jet fighter plane.

Monday afternoon Exhibition Park became alive with thousands of visitors. A new attendance record of 34,339, compared with 28,891, took in the opening day's festivities.

The six-day horse racing meet, being held in conjunction with the Exhibition, also attracted thousands of citizens. New records were set in the pari-mutuel betting, despite the fact racing was cancelled Wednesday due to the condition of the track.

Monday night members of the Edmonton press and radio toured the Royal American Midway, guests of the management.

VARIED FEATURES

Features at the Midway this year were more varied than ever, with 18 feature attractions and 22 rides.

Most popular feature appeared to be the Harlem in Havana presentation, with the Moulin Rouge a close second.

Both musical presentations, Harlem in Havana was exclusively a Negro production, with Moulin Rouge carrying a French theme throughout its performance.

One of the most interesting features of the side-shows were the Siamese twin babies, two little Negro girls from Los Angeles.

INDUSTRIAL EXHIBITS

Other features enjoyed by Exhibition visitors were the many industrial exhibits, presented by national and local business firms and organizations.

All types of industrial equipment, cars, and manufactured products were on display.

Of interest to women visitors were the handicrafts and home-cooking displays.

Some of the most interesting personalities on the Midway were demonstrator-salesmen, who set themselves up in booths, and sold all manner of gadgets.

GRANDSTAND SHOW

The new $1,000,000 grandstand, which was officially opened Monday night by Lieut.-Gov. Hon. J. J. Bowlen, was packed every night this week for the grandstand show.

Entertaining features of the show included comedy and dance routines, a walking dog act, and a spectacular act in which a girl was shot out of a cannon.

The Cavalcade of Hits featured the Marcus Troupe, a clever five-person juggling act; the Hollywood Scandals, a new type dog act; Chuck Brown and Rita, comedy team; the Three Redding-tons, comedy trapeze artists; the Marimba Co-Eds; Novak and Fay, a comedy acrobatic team; Buster West and Lucille Page, another entertaining comedy team, and "Miss Victory," the girl who is shot out of a cannon.

Throughout the performance a chorus of 16 girls presents a variety of entertaining dances.

The spectacular cannon act is performed by Miss Egle Zacchini, daughter of Edmond Zacchini, originator of the idea.

A colorful display of fireworks was held every night following the grandstand performance.

Accidents and injuries were few throughout the week, although the St. John Ambulance Corps treated several people for minor injuries every day.

Directors of the Exhibition, including managing director James Paul and president H. W. J. Madison, have termed this year's fair the most successful on record.

OIL MAKES A COUNTRY STRONG

"OIL NEEDS A LOT OF THINGS, JIMMY!"

"Tankers, Jimmy, are just one of the things the oil business needs. It needs supplies for pipe lines and new refineries. It needs tank cars and trucks and storage tanks. It needs workers and material from all parts of Canada."

Bringing you oil is a big job. It employs labor and skills and ideas across the nation. In the past five years Imperial Oil alone has undertaken to invest more than $200 millions—about $60 for every family in Canada. Much of this money has been spent to find and develop new oil fields in the prairies, fields which mean new prosperity and new security for all Canada. But almost half of it has been invested in new tankers and pipe lines, in new refining units and in facilities to bring the products to you.

With oil playing an increasingly important part in our daily lives, the oil industry's job is bringing new strength and better living for Canadians everywhere.
